WE'VE GOT THE LOW-DOWN ON HOW TO RE-CREATE THEIR LOOKS.

Beyoncé

The former Destiny's Child adores grown up glamour, with statement eyes, radiant skin, sculptured cheeks and satin-y lips. It's a maquillage that screams divine diva.

Eyes: Cat-like

We're not talking your ordinary moggy but pure sex kitten – wide eyed and feline – with curvy brows shaped into an exaggerated arch and inky black kohl silkily defining the entire eye shape, even the inner corner for purr...fect precision then winging upwards and outwards to form a tick. With a lick of white pencil on top, this gives extra feline focus. Eyes are then emphasised with a soft charcoal shadow blended along the socket line with a hint of shimmery pearl in the corner to highlight, and lashings of jet black mascara for sweeping lashes.

Revlon Fabulash Mascara, Blackest Black, £8.49 and ColorStay 12 Hour Eyeshadow Mono Charcoal and Champagne, £5.29; Rimmel Soft Kohl Eye Pencils, Jet Black and Pure White, £2.99 each.

Skin: Flawless

Beyoncé's gorgeous, burnished skin tone is enhanced with a liquid foundation, applied with a slightly dampened sponge to give a fresh, dewy effect. But first, the base is mixed with a touch of facial illuminator to bring a touch of star quality. A featherlight dusting of translucent face powder keeps the base silky and shine free.

Lips: Satin-y

Lips are toned down, to avoid distracting from Beyoncé's slinky eyes. First the shape is outlined with a creamy neutral lip pencil, then filled in with a satiny slick of pinky nude lip gloss.

Scarlett

Miss Johansen normally takes her makeup cue from Marilyn Monroe with a porcelain pale complexion, eyes framed by liquid liner and crimson lips. But here, no longer an icy blonde, Scarlett's gone for subtly sunkissed which suits her spungold hair.

Eyes: Molton

Burnished shades of warm brown, bronze and gold gild the lids, framed by a slick of liquid liner, smudged with chocolate shadow on the lower eyeline mingling with gold edging towards the nose for an eye opening effect. Several coats of sooty mascara give a sexy finish.

Star Products

Rimmel Colour Rush Eyeshadow Quad, Smokey Brun, £5.99 and Exaggerate Liquid Liner, Black, £4.99; Dior Show Mascara, Black, £18.

Skin: Glowing

Scarlett's satin soft complexion has been airbrushed to perfection with a spray foundation which slips on like silk while a light reflecting concealer dotted under the eyes and on the tip of the nose and chin has a brightening effect. Warmth is added with a brush of bronzer, swept over the cheekbones, then lightly diffused up onto temples and along the hairline.

Victoria

Posh has never looked slicker. The former Spice girl is reinventing herself as a fashion guru with a poised and polished image to match.

Eyes: Mesmerising

Victoria knows that shimmering lids get you noticed, hence she's slicked her lids with a generous layer of pearly eyeshine, topped with sparkly gold. But first she's groomed her brows with a gel based brow mascara for a precision shaped brow, then defined the lower lashline with inky kohl pencil before filling in the inner rim with a circle of white – this cleverly gives extra sparkle.

Skin: St Tropez-ed

Posh abides by the rule you can't be too thin, too rich or too tanned, hence she looks bronzed all year round – thanks to regular self-tan sessions, which is far healthier than the real thing. Prone to the odd break-out, Posh's must-have skin saviour is a lightly medicated concealer, gently blended into blemishes before applying foundation and for this she chooses a silky liquid with light to medium coverage with light reflecting particles for a dewy, luminescent finish. Cheekbones are gently emphasised with a brush of warm blusher then the whole look is topped by a light dusting of translucent powder which allows skin to glow, while preventing over-shine.

Star Products

17 Hide Away Concealer, £2.29; No 7 Radiant Glow Foundation, £9.50; 17 Loose Powder, £4.99; Bourjois Lune D'Or Blush, £6.25.

Lips: Full-on

Red is the colour this season and Posh wears it well, painting a scarlet mouth with precision, using a lip brush and a steady hand to achieve a perfect outline. The cupid's bow is over emphasised with a triangle of white pencil, which gives a striking finish.
