

The make-up artist Millie Kendall, far left, has 'flip-flopped' between homes in LA and London for most of her adult life, but she moved back to north London permanently a year ago. She shares the five-bedroom house with her American husband and two daughters, Sadie, 13, and Lucia, 3. Kendall bought the dining table and chairs, by Warren Platner for Knoll (knoll.com), on Hollywood Boulevard. The two Vladimir Tretchikoff prints were bought on eBay 'for less than the postage'

BELOW The drum kit belongs to Sadie and was a Christmas present from Kendall's business partner, Ruby Hammer. 'Friday night is disco night, with me on DJ duty and Sadie on drums — we're like the Partridge Family,' she says

Ruby & Millie make-up is available from Boots; the new teenage range, Scarlett & Crimson, is available from Superdrug

ABOVE The living room is Kendall's favourite space, and her 'quiet zone'. She found the Harry Bertoia Diamond chairs 'covered in dust in the basement of a former secret-service building I worked in years ago' (find new ones at utilitydesign.co.uk). The navy chair is an original Eero Saarinen Womb chair (buy new from atomicinteriors.co.uk). The brown vases are by the American ceramicist Jonathan Adler, from Absolute Flowers and Home (020 7286 1155).
BELOW The Magnet kitchen is ultrapractical (magnet.co.uk). The table is an Ikea bargain
